

When you need support by sexual abuse because

- You are a victim of such an offence at the moment
- You were a victim in the past but you are not sure of the consequence
- You suspect of a sexual abuse in your area but you are not sure what to do about it

you can come to us

We can offer.....

- Consultation and help
- To accompany one by doctor's check-up,
- To the police and by legal process
- Clarification by a sexual abuse suspicion

Also when you are not very sure if what had happened to you was really a sexual abuse
You can nevertheless still talk to us.

Does not matter what has happened, you don't have to feel embarrassed or guilty about.

We won't hold you responsible for anything.

The consultation is offered from 2 professional women.

They are free and if you wish everything will be anonymous.

All conversation will be strictly confidential.

Our center isn't in anyway involved or connected with any official authority.

When you don't speak the German language fluently we will try and get an interpreter in your mother tongue

Naturally you are welcome to bring a woman with you to translate.

The rooms and toilet are suitable for wheel chair.
